

Shippers Certification for Live Animals

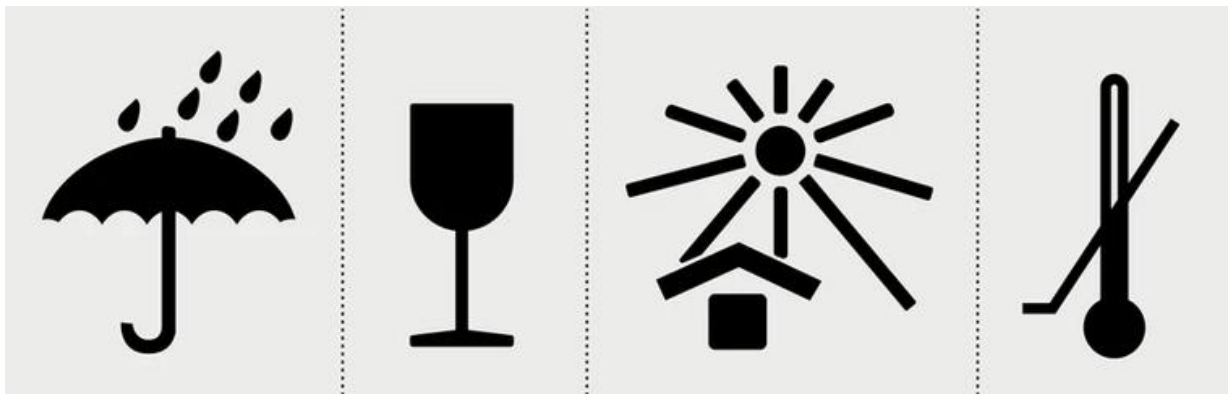

Purpose: For attachment to postal packages of Australian Native Stingless Bees

1. Contents: This package contains (TICK box)

- Live native stingless bees of genus Tetragonula or genus Austroplebeia
- The bees are packaged with regard to ventilation for their well-being
- The bees are packaged to limit their escape from the box

2. Information for postal staff:

- Australia Post allows the transport of bees, leeches and silkworms inside Australia. Packaging requirements are; Express Post, Separate Bag. Label requirement; 'separate bag'.
- Australian native stingless bees do not possess a sting and are unable to harm people.
- Do not refrigerate or freeze the package, Do not leave the box in direct sunlight, especially on hot days.
- Handle with care

3. Inspection Requirements:

Not Applicable. (Australian native stingless bees are not honey bees (Apis mellifera). Apiary inspection laws (state laws) relating to Apis mellifera for transport between states is not required for Australian native stingless bees.)

4. Relevant State Laws: (Disclaimer: It remains the responsibility of the sender to understand and comply with all applicable state and national legislation.)

SA, VIC, NT, QLD, NSW: At time of print there are no known state laws limiting transport of Australian native stingless bees between these states.

WA: The transport of Australian native stingless bees into WA from any other state is prohibited.

5. Senders Declaration

Name: _____

Address: _____

Sign & Date: _____

Print and Sign 2 copies. Attached one to the box and one for the post office.